

MELLOW MOOD HOTELS

INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTION

OUR STORY

Sameer Hamdan and Awad Zuhair founded the predecessor of the Mellow Mood Hotels hotel chain in 1997. Their goal was to provide accommodation for the great number of backpacking tourists who visit Budapest. They rented college dormitory rooms that were empty in the summer and started to operate these as hostels. A few years later, in 2000, as a result of their persistence, dedication, and carefully planned business strategy, they opened their first hotel, the three-star Baross Hotel. From this point on, the team and the number of hotels has grown dynamically - since 2000, not a single year has passed without Mellow Mood Hotels either planning or developing a new hotel.

Besides the hotels, the group also engaged in the real estate development and investment business. All hotels were developed by Mellow Mood Hotels, and the most complex construction was the Párisi Udvar Hotel Budapest rebuilding, where the joint main goals were to maintain the historical heritage of the iconic building and to develop a luxury hotel having a new function. Another element of this colorful real estate portfolio is the commercial retail units, numerous shops are leased in downtown Budapest.

THE PRESENT

At the moment, all the Group's hotel units are located in Budapest. The portfolio of Mellow Mood Hotels contains a total of 10 different three-, four- and five-star hotels, and 3 restaurants. Although the owner's main focus is Budapest tourism, Mellow Mood Hotels successfully cooperates with several international partners, including the American hotel chain Hyatt and the Buddha-Bar Group. The five-star Párisi Udvar Hotel Budapest opened in 2019 as a member of "The Unbound Collection by Hyatt" brand.

During its history of almost 25 years, the hotel group has earned more than 100 different awards and recognitions. The two owners were awarded the Hungarian Gold Cross of Merit in 2012 as a recognition for their outstanding achievements in the field of hotel development in Hungary. They stress that these achievements are the result of teamwork, therefore the award represents the joint success of the entire Group and its more than 400 employees.

OUR VISION

The owners have formulated a very definite vision from the outset: they wanted Mellow Mood Hotels to become the most influential privately owned company group in Central and Eastern Europe by offering unique and outstanding services and experiences to its guests in every hotel category and also by excelling in hotel operations.
